

Airl radio has a positive influence on my life and my community. It brings me joy to listen to the music they play and the hosts are encouraging. Not only do I listen to Airl on the radio when I'm at home or in the car, I also listen online while I'm at work. Many of my colleagues also listen to Airl now, because of their positive and varied music. Airl needs to stay on the air. Without them, many lives would be in disarray.
